	Pranitha Timothy Available in Spanish	Courageous Leadership Time: 4:22	Pranitha Timothy recalls when God intervened when she and the International Justice Mission broke slaves out from rice mills in India. Exercising ruthless trust, Pranitha shares how Gods intervention only affirms the work she is doing to rescue slaves.
	Greg Stier	Three Voices Time:	Remember as a kid when you would hear your mom calling you by your full name? It got your attention! In the same way there are three voices calling you by your full name to get your attention about the importance of sharing the Gospel with those in your world. They are the call from above, the whisper from within, and the scream from beneath. These three voices challenge us to share the good news, not just because the Son of God commanded us to, but also to rescue people from the hell they are headed to and the one they are going through. These three voices are calling you by your name to declare the Name of Jesus. Will you answer?
	John Ortberg Available in Spanish	Who Is This Man? Time: 5:10	John Ortberg preaches of the activities throughout history tied to Jesus and His resurrection. How has the impact of the resurrection impacted your leadership today?
	Henry Cloud	Necessary Endings Time: 10:16	In order to move in the direction of what God is calling you toward, leaders often need to stop doing some things that occupy their time. Dr. Henry Cloud calls these Necessary Endings. In this session, Henry Cloud talks about the value of being proactive and the natural process of pruning in our lives.
